FOR SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

HON. ROGER Q MILLS is a candidate for Speaker of the House. He is an able, earnest, aggressive and irascible Democrat, and is worthy of all honor and esteem. We had hoped that he would not be a candidate, but would desire to remain a leader on the floor.

The CHR NICLE believes that MR. BY-NUM, of Indiana, is the man for Speaker. We take the liberty of making the following extract from a private letter from MR. H. E. FRIES, of Salem. He wisely says:

"I wise you could 'bring about' one other measure, and that is, that the Speaker of the next House be chosen from among the Northern Democrats, so that the Republicans cannot have cause in that respect to refer to the supremacy of the Solid South."

Comments Upon the Situation in Kansas, and Attributes the Change of Sentiment to the Farmers' Financial Distress.

(Atlantic Constitution.) A special dispatch to the Constitution last evening, from Kansas City, Kan., summed up the situation in that state as follows:

"Late returns from Kansas indicate that the people's movement has swept the state. Willets has, in all probability, been elected governor, over Robinson, Democrat, and Humphrey, Republicans. There is every indication that a Republican majority of 82,000 has been overcome, although Willets' plurality will be small.

"The returns received to-night are to the effect that the Legislature will be anti-Ingalls. The Democratic committee claims the election of eighty-flve Democrats and Alliance members--more than enough, regardless of the hold-over Senators, to defeat Ingalls. The opinion of Col. L. L. Polk, of Raleigh, N. C., President of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, who was in the city yesterday, was solicited upon the above dispatch. "It is what might be termed a political volcano eruption, is it not?" he said with an expressive smile. "There are two principal reasons, which I think will embody the primary root of this the fact that the people of Kansas are awakening to the importance and ab solute necessity of a pronounced position on the part of the people of the north against sectionalism. But it was left to John J. Ingalls, in a speech in the Senate characterized by political malice and sectional party hate, to touch the match to the magazine, the explosion of which has culminated in the election just held. Several prominent Republicans wrote me at the time severely condemning Ingalls's course. Walker was elected to the House by 150 They had been his life long friends, majority, being the first Democrat from | both in a personal and a political sense, Caswell since 1865. You can bet on him | but they would never countenance political demagoguery as demonstrated in that speech.

"A meeting was finally held in March, at Topeka, at which a resolution was passed, repudiating any man who would support Ingalls in his course. The resolution was heartily indorsed by thousands, and led to the organization of the late movement, the result of which is announced in the dispatches of to day.

"Sectional agitation has served the purposes of political demagogues in the north in holding the republican party COWLES ELECTED AND MEW- together. When they saw the necessity of abandoning the bloody shirt racket, the 82,000 majority stampeded and The best information we can gather is swept the state. I speak from personal knowledge of the status of opinion in that section, having conversed with thousands this fall, and it was made clear to me that a determined effort was going to be made to throw sectionalism into oblivion. I trust that the patriotic men of the south will meet these rightminded people half way and co-operate heartily with them in establishing those amicable and mutually teneficial relations which cannot but make our glorious country stronger than it has ever been before.

"The second reason lies in the wo fully depressed financial condition of the farmers of the State. They believe that the chief cause of all this depression is the discriminating legislation of the past twenty five years, and they are going to tional Legislature.

"I am informed upon good authority that there are in the State of Kansas today 10,000 sober, industrious, hardworking farmers, who are unable even to pay the interest on the mortgages with which their land and property are covered. They are hopelessly in debt and can only get relief in financial reform. I was prepared to hear very good news from the election, but I must say that the result has surpassed all my previous anticipations."

(By United Press).

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- The President this afternoon issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

By the grace and favor of Almighty God, the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the passing year which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comforts of plenty. Bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and of our hands in every department of human industry.

Now, therefore. I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of the present month of November, to be observed as a day of Prayer and Thanksgiving; and I do invite the people, upon that day to cease from their labors, to meet in their accustomed houses of worship and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our Beneficent Creator for the rich blessings He has granted to us as a nation, and invoking the continuance of His protection and grace for the future. I commend tolmy fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, the homeless and the sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense of charity and the gracious acceptance of our
